PREPARING FOR THE PARADE

Tomorrow is the date for the big W. O. W. picnic, which will be held in the grove east and south of the normal. The ceremonies of the day will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning at the city hall corner, where the flag raising will take place and the parade formed. There will be four decorated floats for the Woodmen, each float being arranged to give some idea of the order and the work it is doing. The parade will be headed by the Roff band, the floats will come next, the degree teams of the W. O. W. and Circle will follow, and the vehicles of members will bring up the rear.

Several degree teams will be on hand and with the arrangements made, the parade will be something most interesting. Everything has been made ready for two days of solid enjoyment, and the candidates will have about their last opportunity to be heard.

Harbert-Baker.

Mr. Arney Harbert, of Jerome, Ariz., and Miss Ruby Baker of this city, were married yesterday in Francis. They came through Ada yesterday on the afternoon train on their way to Roff where they will make a short visit to Mr. Harbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harbert.

From Roff they will go to Sulphur Springs, Texas, and then to Los Angeles, Cal. They will then go to their future home in Arizona.

Mrs. Harbert is one of the most widely known young ladies of Ada. She has made this city her home for a number of years, and has made a host of friends.

Mr. Harbert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harbert of Roff, and is not unknown in this community.

May the best blessings and happiness go with this couple in their new home.

Governor Vetoes Near Bear Measure.

Atlanta, Ga., July 31.—Gov. Jos. M. Brown today vetoed the Alexander-Tippins bill, which prohibited the sale in this state of "near beer" and so limited the percentage of alcohol as an ingredient that many patent medicines would have been excluded from sale.

In his veto message to the legislature the governor declared the measure was entirely too drastic and took the law makers to task for trying to "play politics." He said if the people enforced the present prohibition law it would seem sufficient.

STILL HUNTING FOR NEGRO SLAYER

Dallas, Tex., July 31.—Two mobs in separate counties have been engaged all day and until late tonight in a man hunt for Leonard Potts, the negro slayer of Policeman T. A. Tedford of Dallas and Sheriff Charles Stephens of Red River county. At a late hour tonight the negro is still at liberty.

Tonight at 9 o'clock a posse of officers headed by Sheriff Ben F. Brandenburg and Police Sergeant Louis W. Brown of Dallas left Clarksville to go to the home of Andy Griffin, an uncle of Potts, who lives seven miles southeast of Clarksville.

In formation came to the officers at Clarksville that Potts had been seen in the vicinity of Griffin's home and the officers are proceeding upon the theory that Griffin is harboring the fugitive or that Potts has sought his assistance in eluding capture.

Tonight excitement at Clarksville was intense and 300 men were organized to continue the search tomorrow. Five hundred men are expected tomorrow to join the forces working around Clarksville.

While 2,000 men and boys have been scouring the cross timbers in Red River county, a large party of officers and citizens at Mount Pleasant, the former home of Tedford, have been trailing a negro believed to be Potts since morning.

The hunt at Mount Pleasant began when Will Ray said he had seen a negro resembling Potts, barefooted and bareheaded, five miles north of Mount Pleasant. Sheriff Cooper and Constable Smith accompanied by a large number of citizens went in search of the negro and followed his barefoot tracks up a branch toward the west for several hundred yards and lost the trail.

BEN RILEY ISSUES INSTRUCTIONS

LETTER TO ELECTION OFFICERS INTERPRETS DECISION BY COURT OF APPEALS.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 1.—In a letter to the secretaries of county election boards sent out yesterday, the state election board holds that voters who have registered as independents may change their registration if they so desire and that a registration certificate should be a satisfactory evidence of party fealty. All voters must be allowed to vote under the certificate of the party with which they have aligned, the board rules.

Finally the letter warns election officers that the primary election must be an honest election.

Following is the letter of Ben W. Riley, secretary of the board:

"This board has construed the primary election law as to the voter's right as follows:

"In cities of the first class where the voter registers as a democrat, republican, socialist or prohibitionist, he must vote as he registers, and in all other precincts the same law applies. In a case in the criminal court of appeals in which a decision was handed down yesterday, the election board's position was sustained. I wish you would instruct your various inspectors in your county to see that this is carried out; not permitting the socialists and republicans to call for a democratic ticket in the various precincts, but let them vote for the party they have aligned themselves with, unless they desire to affiliate in the future with the democratic party. A registration certificate should be satisfactory evidence of party fealty. You are more familiar with the local conditions in your own county and more able to handle this position but on the above lines the criminal court of appeals sustains this board.

"A man who has registered as an independent in cities of the first class has no place to vote. If he desires to change his registration, I would not hesitate to comply with his request. See that your election is carried off in a just and fair way, and that every candidate gets every vote he is entitled to. This board will not countenance and has no desire, or wish, to canvass the returns of any county wherein there is a question as to votes being cast illegally. We must have a legal election, and by following the election law, treating every voter fairly, there can be no question about the election. Emphatically instruct your precinct inspectors to see that the election is conducted in this way. See that your counters count every ballot as it is put into the box, and see that they call the ballots just as they come out of the box. Especially instruct them upon this. This election must be conducted in a fair and honest way. Very truly yours,

"BEN W. RILEY,

"Sec'y. State Election Board."

NO WILSON MONEY CONTRIBUTED YET

To date no one has followed the lead of the editor of the News with a subscription to the Wilson and Marshall campaign fund. This is to be regretted, for it takes money to run a campaign. For many years these contributions have been somewhat in the nature of paying the funeral expenses of the party, but this time it is for digging the grave of the republican elephant and Teddy's bull moose. Don't be bashful, boys for Wilson is a sure winner. All contributions will be published in the News, and this list should be a roll of all loyal democrats.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood will leave tonight for their old home in Kansas. They expect to be away for some weeks.

SMALL WRECK NEAR FRANCIS

SOUTH BOUND FRISCO PASSENGER GOES INTO DITCH—ONLY TWO SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Wednesday afternoon, between 2 and 3 o'clock, the south bound Frisco passenger train was wrecked about a mile south of Francis. The tender and all the day coaches left the track, only the engine and the rear trucks of the Pullman remaining. Although the passengers were considerably shaken up, only two ladies from Texas were injured in any way, but neither of these seriously.

The train was due at Ada at 11:35 a. m., but because of the bad wreck near Wetumka the night previous, the train had detoured via the Rock Island, and was over two hours late. The trucks of the tender first left the track and the cars followed, tearing the track the entire length of the train. None of the cars was overturned, and all couplings held which accounts for the fact that the passengers suffered so little. The engine was brought to a quick stop and the train was stopped within the distance of its own length.

It is said that one of the two ladies who was slightly injured, was on the train wrecked at Wetumka the night before and had started to return home only to be caught in another wreck.

The north bound train due at Ada at 4:05, started to the scene of the disaster and the truck of the tender left the track just out of town, but was quickly righted and the train proceeded to the rescue.

Denison-Oklahoma Interurban.

Denison, Tex., July 31.—The citizens of Milburn, Ok., are actively behind the movement to secure the coming of the interurban from Denison to Oklahoma City via that city. It is expected that surveyors will soon be in the field locating proposed routes north and with the establishment here on the Red River of a mammoth central power plant, the project will come quite an interurban terminal city, and from here also will be furnished electrical power in this district.

HARD BLOW TO INDEPENDENTS

Oklahoma City, Ok., July 31.—Ruling of the Criminal Court of Appeals in the habeas corpus case brought in Oklahoma county that those registered as independents have no standing in the primary election will exclude from next Tuesday's voting a large number of Oklahoma electors. It will also prevent those affiliating with one party to vote the ballot of another. In large numbers democrats and republicans in cities of the first class this year registered as independents, under the belief they would be permitted to exercise a free will in selecting nominees of the party whose ticket they were inclined to vote in the fall, and the decision comes as a severe blow to this class, since it was not delivered until after the time for registering had closed.

The court's ruling is particularly disastrous to the ultra progressives of both leading parties. Many democrats wanted to follow the progressive wave by assisting in the nomination of progressive republicans, while there were republicans wanting to support Wilson and Marshall and thought the only way they could do so was by registering as independents. The Bull Moosers have been delivered a body blow also. In scores they registered as independents, proposing to vote in the general election for the democratic nominees in event the Rooseveltian chances were on the wane at election time. The decision has no application to the general election. Then the voter enters the election booth with a sheet bearing the names of candidates of all parties. Previous registration cuts no figure upon how the elector votes, and affords the progressive republican or strictly independent voter an opportunity to cast his ballot for Wilson if he desires.

The court's decision is directly contrary to the ruling of Attorney General West, who held on numerous occasions that the elector could, under the Oklahoma law, do as he pleases, irrespective of his registration. However, he would be limited in his primary choice to the candidates on one ticket only. The opinion sustains the ruling of Ben Riley, secretary of the state election board. Copies of the court's decision will be sent to all election officers, Riley says, with instructions to rigidly enforce it. The affidavit rule will also be exacted by requiring that the elector agree to support the nominees of the party whose ticket he votes in the primary. There is no way to enforce the affidavit requirement, particularly for the general election, but as a general thing, Riley says, men are honest, and if they agree to a situation they will abide by it.

It is expected Gov. Cruce will recommend to the next legislature tightening the election laws so the voter will have no option as between tickets in the primary election, but require him to vote as he elects to register. It is a little difficult to determine what the Oklahoma election law provides. Legislatures at every session have taken a whack at it. Members of both parties have done the same, and it is almost certain, whether the governor recommends changes or not, bills will be offered seeking to correct the evils as the parties view them. Republicans are circulating petitions to initiate their "fair election law."

Southern Hotel Closed.

St. Louis, Mo., July 31.—The Southern hotel, scene of many hilarious parties in the last fifty years, passed out of existence tonight with a last burst of gaiety. The gaiety was somewhat clouded though by the feeling that this would be the last time the great halls would echo to mirth. Mayor Kreismann, Frederick W. Lehmann, former United States Solicitor General, and George W. Kobusch, the capitalist, were hosts to small parties. The twelve guests of the hotel, most of whom have made their homes at the hotel for years, tomorrow will be forced to find other homes and the final disposition of the great building is still a matter of doubt. Up to the very last minute it was hoped that someone would take over the hotel and continue to run it. The Southern for years had been the stopping place of the majority of Texans who came to St. Louis to do their trading.

President and Mrs. C. W. Briles will leave for points in North Carolina tomorrow to visit relatives and friends. They will be away till Sept. 1.

DECISION OF APPELATE COURT

TEXT OF OPINION IN PRIMARY ELECTION CASE. WHO MAY VOTE IN PRIMARY

OPINION BY DOYLE.

Indiscriminate voting regardless of party affiliations in primary elections is not the law and the opinion sent out from the office of Attorney-General West to the effect that voters are free to call for the ballot of any party in the primary, regardless of party affiliations, is not in conformity with the provisions of the constitution is the holding of the Court of Criminal Appeals in an opinion handed down Monday by Judge Doyle. Concurring opinions were also handed down by Presiding Judge Furman and Judge Armstrong.

The opinion was handed down in the matter of the application of Lee F. Wilson, an election inspector, who was arrested Friday on a charge of having refused to deliver to W. P. Cloonan, an elector, the ballot called for in the primary election of 1910. In his application for a writ of habeas corpus it was set out that there was no basis for arrest; first because there was no allegation that Cloonan was a member of the Democratic party on August 2, 1910; second, that there was no allegation that Cloonan had, at the last general election, voted the Democratic ticket; and third, because there was no allegation that Cloonan intended to support the nominees of the Democratic primary at the general election for which the nominees were being named.

These were the propositions involved in the conflicting opinions sent out to the election officials by Attorney-General West and Ben Riley, secretary of the election board, and it was on these three that an Appellate Court opinion was sought.

Doyle's Opinion.

Judge Doyle's opinion is based upon the constitutional and statutory provisions for a mandatory primary. The constitutional provision contemplates that only electors who are members of political parties shall participate in the primary election for the selection of candidates for the respective parties, and shall then vote only the ballot of the party of which they are members, and those electors who are non-partisan, having no party affiliation, are relegated to their right to participate in the nomination of candidates for elective offices by petition in the manner provided for by the primary election law.

Judge Doyle, after quoting from the mandatory primary provision of the statutes, says, "political parties are voluntary associations for political purposes, having distinct aims and opinions on some or all of the leading political questions of controversy in the state in which they are formed. They are governed by their own usages and establish their own rules. The constitutional provision and the primary law enacted in pursuance thereof was intended for the protection of the party and of the citizen in his rights as a member of his political party and guarantees to him the right to express, through the ballot, at a primary election, his wish as to the conduct of affairs within his own party. If this were not so, an elector participating in a primary election would be powerless and without any method or means of protecting the right conferred upon him by the constitution and the law."

In regards to the right of the independent voter in primary elections, Judge Doyle says: "If the independent voter, or the voter affiliating with an opposition party, can vote at the primary election of the party with which he has no political affiliation and thereby control the nomination of a party to which he is opposed the constitutional guaranty that 'the election shall be free and equal' would be destroyed."

Further interpreting the statute, Judge Doyle further holds that the right to challenge intervenes when there is a question of party regularity in the voter's method of casting his ballot.

"The mere fact that an elector has registered and at that time stated his political party affiliation does not preclude the right to interpose a challenge on the ground that he is not a member of the party named in his registration certificate and whose ballot he requests to vote."

Furman's Views.

Presiding Judge Furman in his opinion on this same proposition says: "To allow persons who are not members of a political party and who do not believe in its principles, but who are antagonistic to them, to participate in the primary election of the party for the purpose of nominating its candidates would be to inflict a greater injury upon political parties than would be possible under the old conventional system, while the will of the majority of the members of the party might be defeated, yet those who made the selection were at least members of the party making the nomination, while under the system now proposed men can participate in a party nomination and possibly control its action who are antagonistic to the principals of the party and who would vote against the nominees on the day of the election. If the policy upon which this prosecution is based was adopted by the Court it would be the death to all political organizations and would convert a primary election into a mockery, a snare and a delusion. Any such construction of our primary election law would be revolutionary, unconstitutional, null, void and of no effect. It would involve us in political anarchy."

"The Lake of Shattered Dreams" is the title of a fine picture with a strong lesson that will be shown at the Majestic this evening. A lake gives a pair of young lovers dreams of a happy future, but the boy, when grown up, wanders away from the path of right, and his deserted lover is left with only the memories of happier days. "The Back Window" is a charming love comedy. "Looking Backward" is the title of a splendid picture to which the patrons of the DeSota are eagerly looking forward for this evening's program. "A Child's Influence" is an IMP drama in which the cast is entirely of star performers. Tomorrow evening "The Holy City" will be presented. Arkansas will pass on the statewide prohibition question at the fall election.

Indiana Progressives have decided to hold their state convention in Indianapolis on August 1.

The National Progressive party in Louisiana will hold a convention in New Orleans August 2 to name delegates to the Chicago convention.

The new primary law in Colorado provides that none but women may serve as precinct vice-chairman of the various political parties in that state.

Governor Johnson of California and former Senator Beveridge of Indiana are prominently mentioned for second place on the Roosevelt national ticket.

The democratic, republican, socialist, socialist labor and prohibition parties have put up tickets to be voted for in the Missouri State primaries next week.

Arthur Capper, the Topeka editor, and Frank J. Ryan of Leavenworth are contesting for the republican gubernatorial nomination in Kansas. The nomination will be made in the general primary next week.

Federal Judge George Gray, once prominently mentioned for the democratic presidential nomination, has just declined to become a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Delaware.

The next Colorado legislature will be called upon to select two United States senators, one to succeed Senator Guggenheim and the other to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Hughes.

Eugene V. Debs of Indiana and Emil Seidel of Wisconsin, the socialist candidates, respectively, for president and vice president of the United States, have entered upon a stumping tour of the country.

Friends of William Flinn of Pittsburgh, who defeated Boies Penrose for the leadership of the republican organization in Pittsburgh, expect that he will have the most influential hand

JOE B. THOMPSON,

Of Pauls Valley, Okla., Candidate for Congressman-at-Large.

He was democratic state chairman from 1906 to 1910. He conducted the campaign for the adoption of the Constitution and for the election of the first state and county officials.

He conducted the presidential campaign in 1908, which gave Oklahoma's vote to Bryan.

He is now state senator from the Nineteenth Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Garvin, McClain and Cleveland. His record in the politics of Oklahoma and as state senator stamps him as a public servant who favors what he believes to be right, independent of influences.

He is recognized as an able, brave and tireless worker in the interests of the people.

He introduced and secured the passage of bills through the senate providing that the Attorney General Court could not be reversed on technicalities; reforming the divorce laws of the state, so that people can not secure divorces without just cause; prohibiting race track gambling, providing that the Attorney General should be the law officer of the state, and prohibiting the employment of outside attorneys.

He is a PROGRESSIVE and REFORMED DEMOCRAT.

He voted against and fought every bill that provided for the increase of salaries or for the creation of additional offices.

He believes in and worked for a thorough-going primary law, accompanied by a thorough-going corrupt practice act. He is in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall.

He believes in good roads and good schools.

He believes that too much money is being spent by the government, and is in favor of doing away with the useless offices and abolishing flunkys.

He is in favor of the passage of a law that will prohibit corporations from making any gift to officials during their term of office, and prohibiting an officer from accepting employment from a corporation while he holds office, for—"No man can serve two masters."

He believes in the election of United States Senators, Postmasters, United States Attorneys, United States Marshals and United States Judges by the people whom they serve.

Ben Riley's Ruling.

Ben Riley, secretary of the state election board, has made a ruling regarding the primary that is certainly fair to all parties. He holds that no one should be permitted to participate in the primary of a party other than his own, but that all independents may be permitted to change their registration before the primary and vote with some party. This ruling throws no obstacles in the way of the man who has changed his views and agrees to support the nominees of the party with which he votes, but cuts out the fellow who from other motives seeks to enter the primary of another party. This ruling will do much to eliminate the socialist vote of Pontotoc county which seriously menaced the democratic party in the primary. Under Riley's ruling all republicans who have expressed a desire to vote for Wilson may do so.

So, There is No Such Thing.
Nobody ever possesses a luxury, for a luxury is a thing that one is not able to have.

Prof. Durham, who has ably filled Miss Clark's place in the Normal summer school, returned to his home in Holdenville this afternoon. Mr. Durham is well pleased with the grade of work done here, and says his daughter, Miss Fausta, will be back for her senior year.

Miss Hindman, the music teacher in the Normal, left today for the summer. She will spend the greater part of the time in her old home in Missouri. She will return to Ada in three or four weeks.

In the direction of the Roosevelt national campaign in the East.

Congressman Samuel W. McCall, who has served in the national house of representatives continuously for a score of years, from the Eighth Massachusetts district, has announced that he will not again be a candidate. It is expected that he will try for the seat in the United States senate soon to be vacated by W. Murray Crane.

The republican members of the United States senate whose terms will expire next March and whose seats the democrats believe they have an excellent chance of capturing are Briggs of New Jersey, Brown of Nebraska, Guggenheim of Colorado, Richardson of Delaware, Crane of Massachusetts, Dixon of Montana, Gamble of South Dakota, Curtis of Kansas and possibly Cullom of Illinois and Nelson of Minnesota.

More than two hundred cities have now adopted the commission form of government, of which about one-half began the experiment since the beginning of 1911. Despite their distribution over thirty-five states, more than one-fourth of them are in the two states of Texas and Kansas, and over half of them in these states and Illinois, California, Oklahoma and North Dakota. The cities of the East as a rule have taken up the idea less readily than the municipalities in the South and West.

Gas From Peat.

The production of gas from peat having a low water content (up to about 20 per cent.) for use in suction gas (sauggas) engines has already met with success in Germany, but for a number of years efforts have been made to utilize peat with a water content as high as 50 to 60 per cent. and thus eliminate the costly process of drying the raw material.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ADA. By P. A. Norris, President.

To Democratic Voters of Oklahoma: LESLIE G. NIBLACK

Editor of The Guthrie Daily Leader, Candidate for Congressman-at-Large, Subject to the Democratic Primary, Aug. 6.

Leslie G. Niblack.

Aggressive editor of vigorous Democratic daily paper.

Niblack was elected to the last territorial senate before statehood, overcoming a Republican majority of 3,500.

Niblack waged war on negro officialism and Republican carpet-bag domination.

Niblack fought for Democracy in the fortress of Republicanism, made Logan county white and elected a county and district Democratic ticket.

There is not a negro holding office in Guthrie and Logan county now, due to the vigorous fight made by Niblack; and 50 per cent of the blacks drawn to Logan county by carpetbag rule have left the county.

Niblack was elected minority leader of the senate by his colleagues.

Niblack introduced the first resolution calling for a constitutional convention.

Niblack introduced and passed the Demurrage law, over the opposition of the railroad lobby; he passed the good roads law; his bill for moral education in the schools is now enforced.

Niblack fought and defeated the special levy bill, which sought to saddle a special tax on the farmers.

Niblack voted and labored against every bill providing for increase of salaries and additional offices and which added more taxes to the people.

Niblack mortgaged his printing plant in order to print the proceedings of the constitutional convention and the constitution in order that the people might read. The niggardly federal appropriation for the convention was soon exhausted and Niblack waited two years to get his pay. He received public commendation and thanks from President Wm. H. Murray and the convention. He defended the people of the east side from the vicious and mendacious assaults of the Republican press.

Niblack is a staunch advocate of the Corporation Commission, giving full publicity to the acts of the Commission. He gave full publicity to Judge Hook's infamous decision in the two-cent rate cases, showing up the venality of the courts.

Niblack stands for fewer battleships and more good roads.

Niblack stands for drainage for swamp lands and irrigation for arid lands.

Niblack has been an employer of union labor for 15 years.

Niblack advocates federal aid for the grand-father clause.

Niblack advocates farm implements on the free list; presidential primaries; fewer elections; tariff on luxuries, not on necessities; economy; reciprocity; popular election of judges; initiative, referendum and income tax; national bank insurance; publicity of campaign funds.

Niblack stands for removal of restrictions on Indian lands; payment to the Indian for the land allotted to the negro freedmen; penal legislation for the prevention of monopoly; development of the waterways and navigable streams; federal buildings in towns and cities without partisan or sectional discrimination; primary election of all candidates for office and devotion of all time to the affairs of state after election.

(Vote for LESLIE G. NIBLACK. His name appears just under that of BILL MURRAY on the ballot.)

Two Big Ball Games for Ada.

All base ball fans will have an opportunity of seeing two of the best ball games that have been played in Ada in some time tomorrow and next day. The game will be played between the Allen Outlaws and the Ada champions.

The Allen team has been defeated only three times during the entire season, and the Ada team is composed of the best amateur material in this part of the state. While most of the Ada team will be composed of Ada boys, they have shown that they are there with the goods.

McCain, John and Clyde Kyser, Asberry, Hale and others of like reputation will be in the game. These are enough to insure an exciting contest.

Torbett will be score keeper, and Coffman will umpire.

Campaign Falsehoods on the Eve of the Election.

The report is getting out from designing parties that I own a considerable lot of land as an intermarried citizen and would be opposed to paying taxes on Indian lands. The statement is false. I own no Indian lands. I pay taxes on all my property, but I am unfortunate in not having much to pay on, I have claimed for several years that it would be better for the Indian if his lands could be taxed and landed conditions were settled. I was the first candidate for congressman-at-large to take this stand. I do think the Federal government should pay the Indians for any taxes they might have to pay on lands exempt from taxation under treaty stipulation or if they do not pay the same our state should receive the same out of an appropriation by congress.

WILLIAM M. FRANKLIN.

Percy Simpson was a passenger yesterday afternoon on the train that left the track near Francis and he admits that things looked a little squally for the time being. Percy was returning from a trip to Bentonville, Ark., but when asked about the object of his visit, he only turns red and grins.

News Notes From the University of Oklahoma.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle recently asked the prominent school men in the different parts of the United States to name five leading United States Educators worthy of special commendation. The returns to their inquiry were prompt and hearty. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Oklahoma, ranked 22nd in the list and was designated as "The school man with nerve." The twenty-five men are as follows:

Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University.

G. Stanley Hall, president of Clark University.

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University.

John Dewey, professor Columbia University.

William H. Maxwell, superintendent New York schools.

Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education, New York state.

Edward Thorndike, professor, Teachers College.

James B. Angell, president emeritus, University of Michigan.

David Star Jordan, president Leeland Stanford Jr. University.

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo.

William De Witt Hyde, president Bowdoin College.

Martin G. Brumbaugh, superintendent of schools, Chicago.

Frank McMurray, professor, Teachers College.

David Snedden, State Commissioner of Education, Massachusetts.

Philer T. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

William H. Burnham, professor Clark University.

Herman Schneider, professor University of Cincinnati.

E. Davenport, dean, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Stratton D. Brooks, late superintendent of schools of Boston, now president of the University of Oklahoma.

Charles W. Bardeen, editor the School Bulletin.

Paul Hanus, professor, Harvard University.

William Wirt, superintendent of schools, Gary, Indiana.

Supt. W. A. Brandenburg of Oklahoma City will give the address to the graduates of the University at its summer convocation. There will be eight or ten. The exercises will occur on the evening of August 9th.

The university offices are very busy these days sending out information about the University and answering inquiries from all over the state. These inquiries number sometimes as high as sixty in one mail, and Secretary Newby says that the indications for a big enrollment next fall are excellent. He has set 1200 as the mark to be reached next year and is confident that this is not too high an estimate.

WILL IMPROVE THE CITY PARK

H. C. Evans, commissioner of public works, was a member of the council that took up the work of beautifying the city park and making it a place for relaxation and amusement. He and others were criticised considerably at the time by people who could see nothing beyond the tangle of underbrush that at that time covered the site. However, subsequent events have proved the wisdom of the council in accepting the gift from the donors and expending some money on it.

It is Mr. Evans' plan to add considerably to the park during the coming year, although only $500 has been set aside for the work. As stated before, the park will be provided with seats in a few days by the business men of the town. Other needed additions will be made, and a little later the water pipes will be extended so that the flowers, young trees and grass may be irrigated during the dry seasons. These improvements will make the park one of the most attractive spots to be found anywhere.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

Catarrh Clogged Nostrils A Breeding Place for Deadly Germs.

The nostrils are perfect "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You cannot dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head, or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Summer Colds, which often hang on for weeks, can be quickly cured with this cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm. All druggists sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today. Special agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

W. H. Braley for State Democratic Committeeman.

After the announcement of W. H. Braley for the position of State Democratic committeeman from Pontotoc County there seems to be an unusual interest taken by others aspiring to the same position.

"Billy" Braley, as he is familiarly known among his friends and acquaintances is one of the pioneers of Oklahoma, having come to the Indian Territory in the days of its infancy, an dhas at all times been one of the humble citizens engaged in up-building the county and in helping to solve its new and difficult problems.

Mr. Braley's acquaintance extends throughout the Chickasaw Nation and from its earliest days he has been an active democrat, and the days when the camp fires were burning low he was one of the most ardent workers for the success of the democratic party. When his opponents were enjoying the freedom and rights of self government in other states "Billy" Braley was undergoing the hardships of a pioneer democrat in a republican ruled Territory.

He has never held public office and never been rewarded for his party loyalty and fealty. The position to which he aspires is one of Honor and not of remuneration, and the militant democrats of Pontotoc County owe "Billy" Braley a debt of gratitude and no better opportunity could be afforded them than to make him their democratic State Committeeman at the Primary Election August 6th.

BIGGEST GAME OF THE SEASON

Nebraska Republicans Split.

Lincoln, Neb., July 31.—Republicans of Nebraska split, holding two conventions, selecting two state central committees and paving the way for two state tickets to be voted for in November. The Roosevelt progressive faction was in control of the first convention. Gov. Aldrich, as chairman, ruled out of order a resolution declaring the test of republicanism to be fealty to the National ticket.

More than 150 Taft delegates, over half the total Taft strength, it was claimed, left the hall and the Roosevelt delegates marched in and took their places. Resolutions adopted by the progressives are silent as to National and state candidates.

When the split came the Taft adherents marched to another hall. A new state central committee was selected, empowered to fill all vacancies on the state ticket, which means according to those present, that a second set of republican nominees will be put in the field by petition.

Resolutions were passed reaffirming devotion to the republican party.

PREPARING FOR THE PARADE

Tomorrow is the date for the big W. O. W. picnic, which will be held in the grove east and south of the normal. The ceremonies of the day will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning at the city hall corner, where the flag raising will take place and the parade formed. There will be four decorated floats for the Woodmen, each float being arranged to give some idea of the order and the work it is doing. The parade will be headed by the Roff band, the floats will come next, the degree teams of the W. O. W. and Circle will follow, and the vehicles of members will bring up the rear.

Several degree teams will be on hand and with the arrangements made, the parade will be something most interesting. Everything has been made ready for two days of solid enjoyment, and the candidates will have about their last opportunity to be heard.

Harbert-Baker.

Mr. Arney Harbert, of Jerome, Ariz., and Miss Ruby Baker of this city, were married yesterday in Francis. They came through Ada yesterday on the afternoon train on their way to Roff where they will make a short visit to Mr. Harbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harbert.

From Roff they will go to Sulphur Springs, Texas, and then to Los Angeles, Cal. They will then go to their future home in Arizona.

Mrs. Harbert is one of the most widely known young ladies of Ada. She has made this city her home for a number of years, and has made a host of friends.

Mr. Harbert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harbert of Roff, and is not unknown in this community.

May the best blessings and happiness go with this couple in their new home.

Governor Vetoes Near Bear Measure.

Atlanta, Ga., July 31—Gov. Jos. M. Brown today vetoed the Alexander-Tippins bill, which prohibited the sale in this state of "near beer" and so limited the percentage of alcohol as an ingredient that many patent medicines would have been excluded from sale.

In his veto message to the legislature the governor declared the measure was entirely too drastic and took the law makers to task for trying to "play politics." He said if the people enforced the present prohibition law it would seem sufficient.

STILL HUNTING FOR NEGRO SLAYER

Dallas, Tex., July 31—Two mobs in separate counties have been engaged all day and until late tonight in a man hunt for Leonard Potts, the negro slayer of Policeman T. A. Tedford of Dallas and Sheriff Charles Stephens of Red River county. At a late hour tonight the negro is still at liberty.

Tonight at 9 o'clock a posse of officers headed by Sheriff Ben F. Brandenburg and Police Sergeant Louis W. Brown of Dallas left Clarksville to go to the home of Andy Griffin, an uncle of Potts, who lives seven miles southeast of Clarksville.

In formation came to the officers at Clarksville that Potts had been seen in the vicinity of Griffin's home and the officers are proceeding upon the theory that Griffin is harboring the fugitive or that Potts has sought his assistance in eluding capture.

Tonight excitement at Clarksville was intense and 300 men were organized to continue the search tomorrow. Five hundred men are expected tomorrow to join the forces working around Clarksville.

While 2,000 men and boys have been scouring the cross timbers in Red River county, a large party of officers and citizens at Mount Pleasant, the former home of Tedford, have been trailing a negro believed to be Potts since morning.

The hunt at Mount Pleasant began when Will Ray said he had seen a negro resembling Potts, barefooted and bareheaded, five miles north of Mount Pleasant. Sheriff Cooper and Constable Smith accompanied by a large number of citizens went in search of the negro and followed his barefoot tracks up a branch toward the west for several hundred yards and lost the trail.

BEN RILEY ISSUES INSTRUCTIONS

LETTER TO ELECTION OFFICERS INTERPRETS DECISION BY COURT OF APPEALS.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 1—In a letter to the secretaries of county election boards sent out yesterday, the state election board holds that voters who have registered as independents may change their registration if they so desire and that a registration certificate should be a satisfactory evidence of party fealty. All voters must be allowed to vote under the certificate of the party with which they have aligned, the board rules.

Finally the letter warns election officers that the primary election must be an honest election.

Following is the letter of Ben W. Riley, secretary of the board:

"This board has construed the primary election law as to the voter's right as follows:

"In cities of the first class where the voter registers as a democrat, republican, socialist or prohibitionist, he must vote as he registers, and in all other precincts the same law applies. In a case in the criminal court of appeals in which a decision was handed down yesterday, the election board's position was sustained. I wish you would instruct your various inspectors in your county to see that this is carried out, not permitting the socialists and republicans to call for a democratic ticket in the various precincts, but let them vote for the party they have aligned themselves with, unless they desire to affiliate in the future with the democratic party. A registration certificate should be satisfactory evidence of party fealty. You are more familiar with the local conditions in your own county and more able to handle this position but on the above lines the criminal court of appeals sustains this board.

"A man who has registered as an independent in cities of the first class has no place to vote if he desires to change his registration, I would not hesitate to comply with his request. See that your election is carried off in a just and fair way, and that every candidate gets every vote he is entitled to. This board will not countenance and has no desire, or wish, to canvass the returns of any county wherein there is a question as to votes being cast illegally. We must have a legal election, and by following the election law, treating every voter fairly, there can be no question about the election. Emphatically instruct your precinct inspectors to see that the election is conducted in this way. See that your counters count every ballot as it is put into the box, and see that they call the ballots just as they come out of the box. Especially instruct them upon this. This election must be conducted in a fair and honest way. Very truly yours,

"BEN W. RILEY,
"Sec'y. State Election Board"

NO WILSON MONEY CONTRIBUTED YET

To date no one has followed the lead of the editor of the News with a subscription to the Wilson and Marshall campaign fund. This is to be regretted, for it takes money to run a campaign. For many years these contributions have been somewhat in the nature of paying the funeral expenses of the party, but this time it is for digging the grave of the republican elephant and Teddy's bull moose. Don't be bashful, boys for Wilson is a sure winner. All contributions will be published in the News, and this list should be a roll of all loyal democrats.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood will leave tonight for their old home in Kansas. They expect to be away for some weeks.

SMALL WRECK NEAR FRANCIS

SOUTH BOUND FRISCO PASSENGER GOES INTO DITCH—ONLY TWO SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Wednesday afternoon, between 2 and 3 o'clock, the south bound Frisco passenger train was wrecked about a mile south of Francis. The tender and all the day coaches left the track, only the engine and the rear trucks of the Pullman remaining. Although the passengers were considerably shaken up, only two ladies from Texas were injured in any way, but neither of these seriously.

The train was due at Ada at 11 35 a. m., but because of the bad wreck near Wetumka the night previous, the train had detoured via the Rock Island, and was over two hours late. The trucks of the tender first left the track and the cars followed, tearing the track the entire length of the train. None of the cars was overturned, and all couplings held which accounts for the fact that the passengers suffered so little. The engine was brought to a quick stop and the train was stopped within the distance of its own length.

It is said that one of the two ladies who was slightly injured, was on the train wrecked at Wetumka the night before and had started to return home only to be caught in another wreck.

The north bound train due at Ada at 4 05, started to the scene of the disaster and the truck of the tender left the track just out of town, but was quickly righted and the train proceeded to the rescue.

Denison-Oklahoma Interurban.

Denison, Tex., July 31—The citizens of Milburn, Ok., are actively behind the movement to secure the coming of the interurban from Denison to Oklahoma City via that city. It is expected that surveyors will soon be in the field locating property along the north and with the establishment here on the Red River of a mammoth central power plant, Denison will come quite an interurban terminal city, and from here also will be furnished electric power to the district in this district.

Judge J. T. Dickerson, who was federal judge of this district, is a candidate for the republican nomination for U. S. senator. Rather an empty honor, but some men seem satisfied with such.

Anyway, Oklahoma has not yet been compelled to wrestle with the hookworm, no matter what other difficulties and troubles it may have had to meet.—Tulsa World.

The hustling citizens of Oklahoma are never still long enough for a hookworm to get his hooks in. These parasites do not thrive in this climate, anyway.

Party regularity often demands a heavy toll of sacrifice, but we doubt if a more bitter toll was ever exacted of any party than that now demanded of the republicans of Oklahoma. They must swallow an administration that they have repudiated. They must forsake a candidate they endorsed and whom they believe to have been honestly nominated. They must swear allegiance to a man whose nomination was unquestionably stolen, and are forced to defend the theft and declare it honorable.—Press Bulletin.

L. Howell Lewis of Oklahoma City and candidate for tax assessor of Oklahoma county has a statement in the Daily Oklahoman setting forth in words and "figures" that Oklahoma has 20,000 state employees. Two years ago Joe McNeill declared from every stump in Oklahoma that the state has 3,400 employees. His statement was proven to be an error. Now comes an ambitious Oklahoma Cityan who coveting the flesh pots or stinch pots, of notoriety multiplies Joe McNeill's famous error by six and asks to be made tax assessor by virtue of a double geared imagination. Lewis is known in Oklahoma City as an agent for Lithia water. It is evident from his statement that Lithia is no cure for mendacity. In a day he becomes one of the immortals. Let his name be known L. Howell Lewis, the man who struck dumb the ghost of Ananias.—Press Bulletin.

HARD BLOW TO INDEPENDENTS

Oklahoma City, Ok., July 31.—Ruling of the Criminal Court of Appeals in the habeas corpus case brought in Oklahoma county that those registered as independents have no standing in the primary election will exclude from next Tuesday's voting a large number of Oklahoma electors. It will also prevent those affiliating with one party to vote the ballot of another. In large numbers democrats and republicans in cities of the first class this year registered as independents, under the belief they would be permitted to exercise a free will in selecting nominees of the party whose ticket they were inclined to vote in the fall, and the decision comes as a severe blow to this class, since it was not delivered until after the time for registering had closed.

The court's ruling is particularly disastrous to the ultra progressives of both leading parties. Many democrats wanted to follow the progressive wave by assisting in the nomination of progressive republicans, while there were republicans wanting to support Wilson and Marshall and thought the only way they could do so was by registering as independents. The Bull Moosers have been delivered a body blow also. In scores they registered as independents, proposing to vote in the general election for the democratic nominees in event the Rooseveltian chances were on the wane at election time. The decision has no application to the general election. Then the voter enters the election booth with a sheet bearing the names of candidates of all parties. Previous registration cuts no figure upon how the elector votes, and affords the progressive republican or strictly independent voter an opportunity to cast his ballot for Wilson if he desires.

The court's decision is directly contrary to the ruling of Attorney General West, who held on numerous occasions that the elector could, under the Oklahoma law, do as he pleases, irrespective of his registration. However, he would be limited in his primary choice to the candidates on one ticket only. The opinion sustains the ruling of Ben Riley, secretary of the state election board. Copies of the court's decision will be sent to all election officers, Riley says, with instructions to rigidly enforce it. The affidavit rule will also be exacted by requiring that the elector agree to support the nominees of the party whose ticket he votes in the primary. There is no way to enforce the affidavit requirement, particularly for the general election, but as a general thing, Riley says, men are honest, and if they agree to a situation they will abide by it.

It is expected Gov. Cruce will recommend to the next legislature tightening the election laws so the voter will have no option as between tickets in the primary election, but require him to vote as he elects to register. It is a little difficult to determine what the Oklahoma election law provides. Legislatures at every session have taken a whack at it. Members of both parties have done the same, and it is almost certain, whether the governor recommends changes or not, bills will be offered seeking to correct the evils as the parties view them. Republicans are circulating petitions to initiate their "fair election law."

Southern Hotel Closed.

St. Louis, Mo., July 31.—The Southern hotel, scene of many hilarious parties in the last fifty years, passed out of existence tonight with a last burst of gaiety. The gaiety was some what clouded though by the feeling that this would be the last time the great halls would echo to mirth. Mayor Krelsmann, Frederick W. Lehmann, former United States Solicitor General, and George W. Kobusch, the capitalist, were hosts to small parties. The twelve guests of the hotel, most of whom have made their homes at the hotel for years, tomorrow will be forced to find other homes and the final disposition of the great building is still a matter of doubt. Up to the very last minute it was hoped that someone would take over the hotel and continue to run it. The Southern for years had been the stopping place of the majority of Texans who came to St. Louis to do their trading.

President and Mrs. C. W. Briles will leave for points in North Carolina tomorrow to visit relatives and friends. They will be away till Sept. 1.

DECISION OF APPELATE COURT

TEXT OF OPINION IN PRIMARY ELECTION CASE. WHO MAY VOTE IN PRIMARY

OPINION BY DOYLE.

Indiscriminate voting regardless of party affiliations in primary elections is not the law and the opinion sent out from the office of Attorney-General West to the effect that voters are free to call for the ballot of any party in the primary, regardless of party affiliations, is not in conformity with the provisions of the constitution. The holding of the Court of Criminal Appeals in an opinion handed down Monday by Judge Doyle. Concurring opinions were also handed down by Presiding Judge Furman and Judge Armstrong.

The opinion was handed down in the matter of the application of Lee F. Wilson, an election inspector, who was arrested Friday on a charge of having refused to deliver to W. P. Cloonan, an elector, the ballot called for in the primary election of 1910. In his application for a writ of habeas corpus it was set out that there was no basis for arrest, first because there was no allegation that Cloonan was a member of the Democratic party on August 2, 1910; second, that there was no allegation that Cloonan had, at the last general election, voted the Democratic ticket; and third, because there was no allegation that Cloonan intended to support the nominees of the Democratic primary at the general election for which the nominees were being named.

These were the propositions involved in the conflicting opinions sent out to the election officials by Attorney-General West and Ben Riley, secretary of the election board, and it was on these three that an Appellate Court opinion was sought.

Doyle's Opinion.

Judge Doyle's opinion is based upon the constitutional and statutory provisions for a mandatory primary. The constitutional provision contemplates that only electors who are members of political parties shall participate in the primary election for the selection of candidates for the respective parties, and shall then vote only the ballot of the party of which they are members, and those electors who are non-partisan, having no party affiliation, are relegated to their right to participate in the nomination of candidates for elective offices by petition in the manner provided for by the primary election law.

Judge Doyle, after quoting from the mandatory primary provision of the statutes, says, "political parties are voluntary associations for political purposes, having distinct aims and opinions on some or all of the leading political questions of controversy in the state in which they are formed. They are governed by their own usages and establish their own rules. The constitutional provision and the primary law enacted in pursuance thereof was intended for the protection of the party and of the citizen in his rights as a member of his political party and guarantees to him the right to express, through the ballot, at a primary election, his wish as to the conduct of affairs within his own party. If this were not so, an elector participating in a primary election would be powerless and without any method or means of protecting the right conferred upon him by the constitution and the law."

In regards to the right of the independent voter in primary elections, Judge Doyle says: "If the independent voter, or the voter affiliating with an opposition party, can vote at the primary election of the party with which he has no political affiliation and thereby control the nomination of a party to which he is opposed the constitutional guaranty that 'the election shall be free and equal' would be destroyed."

Further interpreting the statute, Judge Doyle further holds that the right to challenge intervenes when there is a question of party regularity in the voter's method of casting his ballot.

"The mere fact that an elector has registered and at that time stated his political party affiliation does not preclude the right to interpose a challenge on the ground that he is not a member of the party named in his registration certificate and whose ballot he requests to vote."

Furman's Views.

Presiding Judge Furman in his opinion on this same proposition says: "To allow persons who are not members of a political party and who do not believe in its principles, but who are antagonistic to them, to participate in the primary election of the party for the purpose of nominating its candidates would be to inflict a greater injury upon political parties than would be possible under the old conventional system, while the will of the majority of the members of the party might be defeated, yet those who made the selection were at least members of the party making the nomination, while under the system now proposed men can participate in a party nomination and possibly control its action who are antagonistic to the principals of the party and who would vote against the nominees on the day of the election. If the policy upon which this prosecution is based was adopted by the Court it would be the death to all political organizations and would convert a primary election into a mockery, a snare and a delusion. Any such construction of our primary election law would be revolutionary, unconstitutional, null, void and of no effect. It would involve us in political anarchy."

"The Lake of Shattered Dreams" is the title of a fine picture with a strong lesson that will be shown at the Majestic this evening. A lake gives a pair of young lovers dreams of a happy future, but the boy, when grown up, wanders away from the path of right, and his deserted lover is left with only the memories of happier days. "The Back Window" is a charming love comedy "Looking Backward" is the title of a splendid picture to which the patrons of the DeSota are eagerly looking forward for this evening's program. "A Child's Influence" is an IMP drama in which the cast is entirely of star performers. Tomorrow evening "The Holy City" will be presented. This is an attraction seldom shown in a town the size of Ada, and should be liberally patronized.

Of Pauls Valley, Okla., Candidate for Congressman-at-Large.

He was democratic state chairman from 1906 to 1910. He conducted the campaign for the adoption of the Constitution and for the election of the first state and county officials.

He conducted the presidential campaign in 1908, which gave Oklahoma's vote to Bryan.

He is now state senator from the Nineteenth Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Garvin, McClain and Cleveland. His record in the politics of Oklahoma and as state senator stamps him as a public servant who favors what he believes to be right, independent of influences.

He is recognized as an able, brave and tireless worker in the interests of the people.

He introduced and secured the passage of bills through the senate providing that the Attorney General Court could not be reversed on technicalities, reforming the divorce laws of the state, so that people can not secure divorces without just cause; prohibiting race track gambling providing that the Attorney General should be the law officer of the state, and prohibiting the employment of outside attorneys.

He is a PROGRESSIVE and REFORMED DEMOCRAT.

He voted against and fought every bill that provided for the increase of salaries or for the creation of additional offices.

He believes in and worked for a thorough-going primary law, accompanied by a thorough-going corrupt practice act. He is in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall.

He believes in good roads and good schools.

He believes that too much money is being spent by the government, and is in favor of doing away with the useless offices and abolishing klunkys.

He is in favor of the passage of a law that will prohibit corporations from making any gift to officials during their term of office, and prohibiting an officer from accepting employment from a corporation while he holds office, for—"No man can serve two masters."

He believes in the election of United States Senators, Postmasters, United States Attorneys, United States Marshals and United States Judges by the people whom they serve.

To Democratic Voters of Oklahoma: LESLIE G. NIBLACK

Editor of The Guthrie Daily Leader, Candidate for Congressman-at-Large, Subject to the Democratic Primary, Aug. 6.

Leslie G. Niblack.

Aggressive editor of vigorous Democratic daily paper
Niblack was elected to the last territorial senate before statehood, overcoming a Republican majority of 3,500.
Niblack waged war on negro officialism and Republican carpet bag domination.
Niblack fought for Democracy in the fortress of Republicanism, made Logan county white and elected a county and district Democratic ticket.
There is not a negro holding office in Guthrie and Logan county now, due to the vigorous fight made by Niblack; and 50 per cent of the blacks drawn to Logan county by carpetbag rule have left the county.
Niblack was elected minority leader of the senate by his colleagues.
Niblack introduced the first resolution calling for a constitutional convention.
Niblack introduced and passed the Demurrage law, over the opposition of the railroad lobby; he passed the good roads law; his bill for moral and humane education in the schools is now enforced.
Niblack fought and defeated the saddle tax on the farmers.
Niblack voted and labored against every bill providing for increase of salaries and additional offices and which added more taxes to the people.
Niblack mortgaged his printing plant in order to print the proceedings of the constitutional convention and the constitution in order that the people might read. The niggardly federal appropriation for the convention was soon exhausted and Niblack waited two years to get his pay. He received public commendation and thanks from President Wm. H. Murray and the convention. He defended the people of the east side from the vicious and mendacious assaults of the Republican press.
Niblack is a staunch advocate of the Corporation Commission, giving full publicity to the acts of the Commission. He gave full publicity to Judge Hook's infamous decision in the two-cent rate cases, showing up the venality of the courts.
Niblack stands for fewer battleships and more good roads.
Niblack stands for drainage for swamp lands and irrigation for arid lands.
Niblack has been an employer of union labor for 15 years.
Niblack advocates federal aid for the grand-father clause.
Niblack advocates farm implements on the free list; presidential primaries; fewer elections, tariff on luxuries, not on necessities, economy; reciprocity; popular election of judges; initiative, referendum and income tax; national bank insurance; publicity of campaign funds.
Niblack stands for removal of restrictions on Indian lands; payment to the Indian for the land allotted to the negro freedmen; penal legislation for the prevention of monopoly; development of the waterways and navigable streams; federal buildings in towns and cities without partisan or sectional discrimination; primary election of all candidates for office and devotion of all time to the affairs of state after elected.

(Vote for LESLIE G. NIBLACK. His name appears just under that of BILL MURRAY on the ballot.)

Two Big Ball Games for Ada.
All base ball fans will have an opportunity of seeing two of the best ball games that have been played in Ada in some time tomorrow and next day. The game will be played between the Allen Outlaws and the Ada champions.

The Allen team has been defeated only three times during the entire season, and the Ada team is composed of the best amateur material in this part of the state. While most of the Ada team will be composed of Ada boys, they have shown that they are there with the goods.

McCain, John and Clyde Kyser, Asberry, Hale and others of like reputation will be in the game. These are enough to insure an exciting contest.
Torbett will be score keeper, and Coffman will umpire.

Campaign Falsehoods on the Eve of the Election.

The report is getting out from designing parties that I own a considerable lot of land as an intermarried citizen and would be opposed to paying taxes on Indian lands. The statement is false. I own no Indian lands. I pay taxes on all my property, but I am unfortunate in not having much to pay on, I have claimed for several years that it would be better for the Indian if his lands could be taxed and landed conditions were settled. I was the first candidate for congressman-at-large to take this stand. I do think the Federal government should pay the Indians for any taxes they might have to pay on lands exempt from taxation under treaty stipulation or if they do not pay the same our state should receive the same out of an appropriation by congress.

WILLIAM M. FRANKLIN.

Percy Simpson was a passenger yesterday afternoon on the train that left the track near Francis and he admits that things looked a little squally for the time being. Percy was returning from a trip to Bentonville, Ark., but when asked about the object of his visit, he only turns red and grins.

News Notes From the University of Oklahoma.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle recently asked the prominent school men in the different parts of the United States to name five leading United States Educators worthy of special commendation. The returns to their inquiry were prompt and hearty. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Oklahoma, ranked 22nd in the list and was designated as "The school man with nerve." The twenty-five men are as follows:

Charles W. Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard University
G. Stanley Hall, president of Clark University.
Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University.
John Dewey, professor Columbia University.

William H. Maxwell, superintendent New York schools.

Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education, New York state.

Edward Thorndike, professor, Teachers College.

James B. Angell, president emeritus, University of Michigan.

David Star Jordan, president Lehigh University.

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo.

William De Witt Hyde, president Bowdoin College.

Martin G. Brumbaugh, superintendent of schools, Chicago.

Frank McMurray, professor, Teachers College.

David Snedden, State Commissioner of Education, Massachusetts.

Philander T. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

William H. Burnham, professor Clark University.

Herman Schneider, professor University of Cincinnati.

E. Davenport, dean, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Stratton D. Brooks, late superintendent of schools of Boston, new president of the University of Oklahoma.

Charles W. Bardeen, editor the School Bulletin.

Paul Hanus, professor, Harvard University.

William Wirt, superintendent of schools, Gary, Indiana.

Supt. W. A. Brandenburg of Oklahoma City will give the address to the graduates of the University at its summer convocation. There will be eight or ten. The exercises will occur on the evening of August 9th.

The university offices are very busy these days sending out information about the University and answering inquiries from all over the state. These inquiries number sometimes as high as sixty in one mail, and Secretary Newby says that the indications for a big enrollment next fall are excellent. He has set 1200 as the mark to be reached next year and is confident that this is not too high an estimate.

WILL IMPROVE THE CITY PARK

H. C. Evans, commissioner of public works, was a member of the council that took up the work of beautifying the city park and making it a place for relaxation and amusement. He and others were criticised considerably at the time by people who could see nothing beyond the tangle of underbrush that at that time covered the site. However, subsequent events have proved the wisdom of the council in accepting the gift from the donors and expending some money on it.

It is Mr. Evans' plan to add considerably to the park during the coming year, although only $500 has been set aside for the work. As stated before, the park will be provided with seats in a few days by the business men of the town. Other needed additions will be made, and a little later the water pipes will be extended so that the flowers, young trees and grass may be irrigated during the dry seasons. These improvements will make the park one of the most attractive spots to be found anywhere.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

Catarrh Clogged Nostrils A Breeding Place for Deadly Germs.

The nostrils are perfect "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You cannot dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head, or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Summer Colds, which often hang on for weeks, can be quickly cured with this cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm. All druggists sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today. Special agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

W. H. Braley for State Democratic Committeeman.

After the announcement of W. H. Braley for the position of State Democratic committeeman from Pontotoc County there seems to be an unusual interest taken by others aspiring to the same position.

"Billy" Braley, as he is familiarly known among his friends and acquaintances is one of the pioneers of Oklahoma, having come to the Indian Territory in the days of its infancy, an dhas at all times been one of the humble citizens engaged in up-building the county and in helping to solve its new and difficult problems.

Mr. Braley's acquaintance extends throughout the Chickasaw Nation and from its earliest days he has been an active democrat, and the days when the camp fires were burning low he was one of the most ardent workers for the success of the democratic party. When his opponents were enjoying the freedom and rights of self government in other states "Billy" Braley was undergoing the hardships of a pioneer democrat in a republican ruled Territory.
He has never held public office and never been rewarded for his party loyalty and fealty. The position to which he aspires is one of Honor and not of remuneration, and the militant democrats of Pontotoc County owe "Billy" Braley a debt of gratitude and no better opportunity could be afforded them than to make him their democratic State Committeeman at the Primary Election August 6th.

William Wirt, superintendent of schools, Gary, Indiana.

Supt. W. A. Brandenburg of Oklahoma City will give the address to the graduates of the University at its summer convocation. There will be eight or ten. The exercises will occur on the evening of August 9th.

The university offices are very busy these days sending out information about the University and answering inquiries from all over the state. These inquiries number sometimes as high as sixty in one mail, and Secretary Newby says that the indications for a big enrollment next fall are excellent. He has set 1200 as the mark to be reached next year and is confident that this is not too high an estimate.

WILL IMPROVE THE CITY PARK

H. C. Evans, commissioner of public works, was a member of the council that took up the work of beautifying the city park and making it a place for relaxation and amusement. He and others were criticised considerably at the time by people who could see nothing beyond the tangle of underbrush that at that time covered the site. However, subsequent events have proved the wisdom of the council in accepting the gift from the donors and expending some money on it.

It is Mr. Evans' plan to add considerably to the park during the coming year, although only $500 has been set aside for the work. As stated before, the park will be provided with seats in a few days by the business men of the town. Other needed additions will be made, and a little later the water pipes will be extended so that the flowers, young trees and grass may be irrigated during the dry seasons. These improvements will make the park one of the most attractive spots to be found anywhere.

THE NOSE A FILTER TO STRAIN THE AIR

Catarrh Clogged Nostrils A Breeding Place for Deadly Germs.

The nostrils are perfect "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You cannot dodge them, but you can safe-guard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head, or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Summer Colds, which often hang on for weeks, can be quickly cured with this cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm. All druggists sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today. Special agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

W. H. Braley for State Democratic Committeeman.

After the announcement of W. H. Braley for the position of State Democratic committeeman from Pontotoc County there seems to be an unusual interest taken by others aspiring to the same position.

"Billy" Braley, as he is familiarly known among his friends and acquaintances is one of the pioneers of Oklahoma, having come to the Indian Territory in the days of its infancy, an dhas at all times been one of the humble citizens engaged in up-building the county and in helping to solve its new and difficult problems.

Mr. Braley's acquaintance extends throughout the Chickasaw Nation and from its earliest days he has been an active democrat, and the days when the camp fires were burning low he was one of the most ardent workers for the success of the democratic party. When his opponents were enjoying the freedom and rights of self government in other states "Billy" Braley was undergoing the hardships of a pioneer democrat in a republican ruled Territory.

He has never held public office and never been rewarded for his party loyalty and fealty. The position to which he aspires is one of Honor and not of remuneration, and the militant democrats of Pontotoc County owe "Billy" Braley a debt of gratitude and no better opportunity could be afforded them than to make him their democratic State Committeeman at the Primary Election August 6th.

Nebraska Republicans Split.

Lincoln, Neb., July 31.—Republicans of Nebraska split, holding two conventions, selecting two state central committees and paying the way for two state tickets to be voted for in November. The Roosevelt progressive faction was in control of the first convention. Gov. Aldrich, as chairman, ruled out of order a resolution declaring the test of republicanism to be fealty to the National ticket.

More than 150 Taft delegates, over half the total Taft strength, it was claimed, left the hall and the Roosevelt delegates marched in and took their places. Resolutions adopted by the progressives are silent as to National and state candidates.

When the split came the Taft adherents marched to another hall. A new state central committee was selected, empowered to fill all vacancies on the state ticket, which means according to those present, that a second set of republican nominees will be put in the field by petition.

Resolutions were passed reaffirming devotion to the republican party.

WE DELIVER COAL

promptly, and without making a lot of dirt about it. SOMEWHAT HEAVY are the tons of coal we send to our customers. Never a pound below the weight. And it is free from dirt and stones—every piece burns and gives heat. Can't find any better coal at any price.

Remember if you get 1500 lbs. of lump coal and 500 lbs. of slack for a ton you have really only 1500 lbs. of coal as the slack is worthless to you. We would not let you have slack if you wanted it as we need it for our boilers, so be sure and get our prices before you buy.
